MASTER'S MESSAGE

Brethren,

March has been proclaimed Youth Orders Month by Most Worshipful Russ Charvonia.

We here at Golden Trowel Norwalk will certainly be respecting our Grand Master proclamation if only by recognizing our Youth Orders at our Stated Meeting. Wor. Bro. Dave Swanston is continuing to monitor a Cash for Grade incentive program. I have spoken with other members of the Lodge and we want to recognize and thank every Youth in our Orders and their Parents in what they do. A friendly greeting and word of encouragement goes a long way in making them feel welcome.

Below is a portion of the Grand Masters Proclamation;

. “We all recognize that our youth are our future. In order to make this future bright, we must make an investment in the next generation, by devoting our time, guidance, and financial resources to our young people.

This year, the Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of California reflects on the theme Repairing the World by Improving Ourselves. As we examine our commitment to improving the communities we serve by consistently demonstrating Masonic values, we must remember to include support for our Masonic youth orders as a central focus.

It is imperative that we continue to support each young man and woman who finds a place within the family of Freemasonry. Strengthening Masonic youth orders is one of our 2010-15 strategic priorities because our youth are the future of society as well as our fraternity, and the ones who will continue to repair our world long after we are gone. I therefore PROCLAIM the month of MARCH 2015 to be YOUTH ORDERS MONTH.”

If you have any information about a Sister or Brother in sickness or distress please contact the Chairman of our sickness and distress committee, James Reyburn at (562)943-9342 or email; jimmyburnoo@msn.com

Fraternally,
James Arend, Master
