MASTER'S MESSAGE

Brethren,

As Master of the Lodge there are a few privileges I get to perform and that is recognizing and rewarding members of our community and our Masonic Family for their service. Last Month I was able to do that. Bernice and I were very pleased that we could celebrate Public Schools Month with a local Teacher and her Family and also our own Rainbow Girls and Jobs Daughters. That was just one of our baby steps in reaching out to our local community. I hope to be able to present the Principle of Waite Middle School with the balance of the gift cards so she can hand them out to needy students and teachers.

This month has been proclaimed "Champion Civility Month" by the Grand Master and will be discussed at our dinner. Also the Junior Warden and I met with the Grand Master and he has a request I need to discuss with the Brethren.

Let us welcome our newest Entered Apprenticed Mason, Adam Marangakis and our newest Master Mason, Kevin Bulanek whose Degrees took place last month.

If you have any information about a Sister or Brother in sickness or distress please contact the Chairman of our sickness and distress committee, James Reyburn at (562)943-9342
Or email; jimmyburnoo@msn.com

Fraternally,
James Arend, Master

JUNIOR WARDEN'S MESSAGE

Brethren,

April was another successful and busy I would say month here at the GTN 273 lodge.

We have had the initiation Degree of our newly obligated brother Marangakis, as well the raise to the sublime Degree of Master Masons for brother Bulanek. The officers with the help of the coach and the inpector, worked hard for those Degrees.

Also in the past month was the annual audit of the Inspector's to the financial books of our Lodge as well as the building's association.

Last but not least, the Worshipful and I, really enjoyed our breakfast-lunch with the most worshipful Grand Master Charvonias at a local restaurant. In his very busy schedule not only to analyze his agenda, but also to give us many helpful and valuable points and recommendations about our Lodge and Masonry in general.

Fraternally,
Joseph Patronas, Jr. Warden
