Happy St. Patrick's Day!!

Our Lodge has been going strong, our officers are hard at work and we are gearing up for a lot of degrees. To let all our Brethren know we will be having an election for junior Warden at our March stated meeting, election and installation to follow. We have had people coming in to visit and hopefully some petitions will find their way to our secretary. Come join us for stayed dinner, our meetings and degrees, and our fun events. It's always great see Brethren, widows and their families come back to visit and come around, hope to see more of our family so come out, hang out, have some fun.

Please be sure to leave your full name and contact phone number in your voicemail and I will get back to you as quickly as I can. I hope to see as many of you as possible at our upcoming stated meetings and events.

From the Building Association

Hello Brethren, from the Hall Association!

Standard maintenance has been completed for January, but come February, we need help as we are holding the voting process for our area. The voting time is February 22nd through March 3rd. So, on February 20th, after practice, we need as many Brothers as possible, to remove the tables and chairs from the dining room to make room for the election equipment.

One other date to mark on your calendar, is April 4th for Spring cleaning in the attic. More information to follow in the next Trestle Board.

Fraternally,
Mike Mulcahy
