From the East

James Arend
Worshipful Master

Ladies & Brethren

February was a very busy month for our lodge and Masonry. Wor. Mark Patton and I were able to attend the installation ceremonies for both the Rainbow Girls International and the Job's Daughters Buena Park Bethel. Both took place at our Lodge and were well attended. We also attended a special recognition for Rosalinda Aquino at our Lodge with close to 100 Jobbies in attendance. We were there just as side liners and were very impressed by the focus and professionalism of the girls. We owe the girls a lot, they have done so much to support the Lodge.

Not to forget the DeMolay. I was able to attend the Past Masters Night at Long Beach Scottish Rite Cathedral February 25th to support the DeMolay (SCJ) and made a donation for the Lodge.

Let's remember March is Masonic Youth Orders Month.

February was also the Inspectors Official Visit. The dinner and Stated Meeting were Fun and Official. Sometimes I don't know how we do it.

I also did a grave side service for Brother Owen Robbins at Rose Hills.

Our sympathies and support for his widow Judy Robbins.

OTIUM CUM DIGNITATE

Fraternally,

James Arend, P.M.
Worshipful Master
