Ladies & Brethren

Praise the Great Architect! The “pineapple express” has really been a miracle. My garden looks great. The Lodge roof has a few minor leaks but they are being repaired. I hope everyone has a good roof over their heads.

It has been one year since we got rid of mandatory masks. We have been trying to move ahead but with the death and illness of active brothers and sisters and other things we still have a way to go. We have quite a few referrals and petitions to join the Lodge which is a good thing. There is a back log of candidates needing to receive their 1st Degree. Now that Grand Lodge has been able to catch up with paper work and we have some affiliations like Bro. Ocampo we are set up to move ahead.

March was Masonic Youth Orders Month. I attended a past Masters dinner and Degree where all of the proceeds went to support DeMolay. Brother Socrates Patronas and I were able to attend a spaghetti dinner fund raiser at our lodge put on by the DeMolay. Also, Worshipful Mark Patton and I attended a Rainbow Girls meeting last month to show our support and also because we enjoy helping our youth. The Job’s Daughters are doing the best, congrats!

Hope to see you at our Stated Meeting dinner. Of course, the theme is Easter.

OTIUM CUM DIGNITATE

James Arend, P.M.
